PETITION FOR REVIVAL OF AN APPLICATION
FOR PATENT ABANDONED UNINTENTIONALLY UNDER 37 CFR 1.137(b)

This Petition is submitted in response to a Decision Regarding Petition to Revive Under 37 CFR 1.137(a), which decision was mailed 17 March 2003 and for which a two-month deadline for response was set, bringing the date of such deadline to 17 May 2003. Since 17 May 2003 falls on a Saturday, under 37 CFR 1.7 the action may be taken on the next succeeding business day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or a Federal holiday, which is Monday, 19 May 2003, and still be considered a timely response.

1. Applicant petitions for the revival of the above-identified application, abandoned unintentionally.

On 21 January 2003 Applicants filed a "Petition for Revival of an Application Abandoned Unavoidably Under 37 CFR 1.137(a)", with accompanying materials. On 17 March 2003, Applicants received a Decision Regarding Petition to Revive Under 37 CFR 1.137(a), which stated that Applicants' Petition would be Dismissed without prejudice and the application remain abandoned with respect to the United States. In the Discussion section of the Decision, the PCT Petitions Attorney, Richard M. Ross, indicates that the showing put forth by Applicants was "insufficient to satisfy the stringent standards applied to "unavoidable abandonments". In the Conclusion, Mr. Ross suggests that in the alternative to a renewed petition, Applicants consider filing a petition to revive an application abandoned unintentionally under 37 CFR

1.137(b), as such a petition would be more appropriate under the factual situation described here. Applicants have thus taken this advice and now submit a timely Petition for Revival of an Application Abandoned Unintentionally Under 37 CFR 1.137(b), with supporting materials (photocopied from copies retained following the original Petition submitted 21 January 2003, enclosing original materials).
